Re: Dail Moses-Taylor v. Greyston Foundation, Inc., Case No. 1:21-cv-06756

Dear Judge Roman:

We represent the Plaintiff Dail Moses-Taylor in the above-referenced matter. Consistent with past practice, Defendant has violated yet another Court-ordered deadline (August 30, 2023 to respond to Plaintiff's August 24 letter motion, see Dkt. 69) and Plaintiff still has not received the long overdue settlement sums, nor any communication from Defendant's counsel regarding the status of the payments. As described in Plaintiff's prior correspondence to the Court (see, e.g., Dkts. 61, 63, 67, 68), it is clear that Defendant and its counsel feel entitled to violate their legal obligations and otherwise have no respect for this Court or the judicial process. It is also clear that Defendant has no intention of honoring the parties' Agreement and paying the settlement sums. Given these grossly unfair but sadly predictable circumstances, Plaintiff respectfully asks that the Court grant her pending letter motion seeking enforcement of the parties' Agreement and ordering Defendant or its counsel to pay sanctions (see Dkt. 68).

We thank the Court for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
